SCOTIABANK SPONSORS JBLN TEAM

Nassau, The Bahamas, January 11, 2017 – In keeping with its commitment to help young persons in the community become better off, Scotiabank is supporting the Junior Baseball League of Nassau (JBLN) for a 6th consecutive year.

“Scotiabank maintains a strong commitment to youth in our community and is pleased to support these young baseball players in their pursuit of athletic excellence,” said Leah Davis, Senior Manager, Marketing and Public Relations, Scotiabank. “We wish our team, and all other teams, every success this season as they develop good character and sportsmanship through participation in competitive baseball.”

Scotiabank is sponsoring a Junior Division baseball team comprised of 13-15 year old players. The 2017 season opens this Saturday, January 14 at 10:00a.m. at the JBLN Field of Dreams.
