

SCOTIABANK TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO LIMITED

MEDIA RELEASE

November 29, 2022

Scotiabank named Trinidad and Tobago's Bank of the Year 2022.

Scotiabank has been recognized by LatinFinance as the Bank of the Year 2022 in Trinidad and Tobago. LatinFinance is a leading source of intelligence on financial markets and economies in the region.

This is the 2nd time this year the Bank's operations have been recognized for being at the forefront in Trinidad and Tobago, having topped the Best Digital Consumer Bank 2022 award from Global Finance earlier this year.

"This award highlights the progress we have made, enhancing our digital offering, aligning with our customer-first mindset" commented Gayle Pazos – Senior VP and Managing Director, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago.

"The digital optionality flowing into the market allows customers to bank the way they want to bank, and we continue to invest in digital solutions to help them bank safer easier and more conveniently. We thank our customers for their continued trust and confidence in us" she continued

Recently, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago launched Scotia eCom+™, a new digital payment acceptance solution for businesses that allows customers to accept credit and debit card online payments from anywhere in the world. Within the past year, significant enhancements have also been made to the Bank's digital channels with frequent updates to the Scotia Caribbean Mobile App and the introduction of digital account opening.

"This award would not be possible without the collective efforts of our strong and dedicated team. Our employees continue to go above and beyond, and I am extremely proud and grateful for their dedication and commitment" Pazos concluded.

The Bank of the Year Awards celebrate the financial institutions in Latin America and the Caribbean that best demonstrated excellence in retail, commercial and investment services in the last year. Read more about the 2022 LatinFinance Bank of the Year awards here.
