

Cancer Awareness Pop-Up with branded merchandise. Proceeds from purchases will be donated to the Trinidad and Tobago Cancer Society.

Scotia customer, David Wong, gets to know Marlon White, Branch Manager.

Marlon White and Michelle Eligon, District General Manager, chat with a customer.

Shania Coker and Dennecia Joseph happily greet customers at the Auto display.

Scotia customers, Kevon Samuel and Christina Tam-Samuel, at Cocktails & Tapas.

Scotia customers, Sherlon & Davina Rampersad, at Cocktails & Tapas.

Marlon White presents a customer with a token at the exclusive Digital Banking how-to session for Seniors.

Ria Deokaran, Business Banking Officer and Mary Soo-Hon, Head of Customer Experience and Premium Banking, chat with Charmaine Archer.

Scotia customer, Farouk Yathali and his partner enjoying Cocktails & Tapas.

Krystel Maharaj, Head of Marketing, Caribbean South & East, engages with a Scotia customer.

Charmaine Archer, owner of Canaan Nursery School and long-standing Business Banking customer, receives an award from Marlon White.

Thank you, Tobago.

Make your moves with us, at Lowlands.

Tobago, you showed up and showed out for our Auto shows with Massy Motors and Jones Motors, daily Digital Banking how-to sessions plus our exclusive session for Seniors to close off the week. Thank you!

"I am overjoyed that Scotiabank hosted this exclusive Digital Banking session for seniors in Tobago. I don't have too much experience using online banking but coming here today helped me understand how to use it better. It's so quick, easy, and now, I feel confident to do my transactions using Scotia OnLine Banking." - Scotia Customer

We truly appreciate all our clients who braved the inclement weather to attend Cocktails & Tapas, and warmly welcome our NEW Branch Manager, Marlon White.

Whether you need advice on customised borrowing solutions for your new or used vehicle, your home renos or large purchases; Marlon White and his team at Lowlands are ready to listen, so every plan is tailored to your unique needs.