Class of instrument	Equities – Shares & Depositary Receipts - Tick size liquidity band 1 and 2 (from 0 to 79 trades per day)
(a) an explanation of the relative importance the firm gave to the execution factors of price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution or any other consideration including qualitative factors when assessing the quality of execution;	Scotiabank Europe plc (SBE) determines the relative importance of each execution factor in light of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the characteristics of the Client including the categorisation of the Client as retail or professional; • the nature of the order; • the characteristics of the Financial Instruments that are subject of that order; and • the characteristics of the execution venues to which that order can be directed. In the ordinary course of business, price will have a relatively high importance. However, the overall value of a particular transaction may be affected by the other factors listed above. The diversity in markets and Financial Instruments and the kind of orders Clients may place with SBE means that different factors will have to be taken into account. In some markets, price volatility may mean that the timeliness of execution is a priority, whereas, in other markets that have low liquidity, the fact of execution may itself constitute best execution. In other cases, choice of venue may be limited (even to the extent that there may only be one platform/market upon which orders can be executed) because of the nature of an order or a Client's specific instructions. Please refer to appendix A of the Summary of Scotiabank London Best Execution Policy for asset class specific factors - http://www.gbm.scotiabank.com/AboutUs/AB_Global_Presence.htm
(b) a description of any close links, conflicts of interests, and common ownerships with respect to any execution venues used to execute orders;	SBE may use connected parties including affiliates for the execution of orders on behalf of Clients. Use of connected parties is permitted provided they are not placed in a privileged position vis-a-vis other execution venues and the selection is based on application of the execution factors as set out in the Best Execution Policy. SBE is subject to the overarching requirement to identify and manage conflicts of interest. Where a conflict of interest cannot be managed it must be disclosed. This requirement applies to potential conflicts of interest that may arise between SBE and its Clients as a result of its execution arrangements which could prevent it from satisfying its Best Execution Obligations. SBE uses a number of affiliates (connected parties) to execute Client orders on its behalf and SBE business lines may execute Client orders against internal positions where this achieves the best possible result for the Client. SBE trades executed through internalisation or connected parties are subject to the same monitoring and testing arrangements as trades executed on external venues or through non-connected firms. As SBE uses Scotia Capital Inc. (SCI) as an executing broker and this potential conflict of interest must be disclosed to Clients. SCI is a shareholder in TMX Group Limited (TMX) (formerly Maple Group Acquisition Corporation). In addition, SCI has a nominee director serving on its Board of Directors. As such, SCI may be considered to have an economic interest in TMX which creates the potential for conflicts of interest between SCI and TMX and the marketplaces or entities owned and operated by it: TSX, TSX Venture, Alpha Exchange and related Alpha entities, Clearing and Depositary Services Inc., Canadian Derivatives Clearing Corporation, Montreal Exchange Inc. and the services and products each provides.
(c) a description of any specific arrangements with any execution venues regarding payments made or received,	Payment for order flow is the historical practice whereby an investment firm that executes Client orders receives commission from both the Client as well as the counterparty that executed the trade. The FCA has stated that it considers that payment for order flow arrangements

discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits received;	create a conflict of interest between the firm and its clients and as such these arrangements are unlikely to be compatible with the FCA rules on inducements. SBE is prohibited from entering into any payment for order flow arrangements. All required disclosures of arrangements with execution venues can be found here – http://www.gbm.scotiabank.com/AboutUs/AB_Global_Presence.htm
(d) an explanation of the factors that led to a change in the list of execution venues listed in the firm's execution policy, if such a change occurred;	N/A, no such change occurred during the disclosure period.
(e) an explanation of how order execution differs according to client categorisation, where the firm treats categories of clients differently and where it may affect the order execution arrangements;	The Best Execution Obligation only applies to orders received from Retail and Professional Clients, not Eligible Counterparties as defined in FCA Handbook COBS 3 Client categorisation. However, Eligible Counterparties may request to be treated as a Professional Client if the request is made in writing indicating whether the request is for one or more particular services, transactions or products. SBE does not undertake activity with any Retail Clients, so Best Execution is provided to Professional Clients or Eligible Counterparties who have requested to be treated as Professional Clients, but not Eligible Counterparties. SBE only traded with one category of client where Best Execution was owed during the disclosure period, Professional Clients. As such no differential treatment can occur across client categories.

(d) an explanation of the factors that led to a change in the list of execution venues listed in the firm's execution policy, if such a change occurred;	N/A no such change occurred during the disclosure period.
(f) an explanation of whether other criteria were given precedence over immediate price and cost when executing retail client orders and how these other criteria were instrumental in delivering the best possible result in terms of the total consideration to the client;	N/A SBE did not trade with any Retail Clients during the disclosure period.

(a) an explanation of the relative importance the firm gave to the execution factors of price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution or any other consideration including qualitative factors when assessing the quality of execution;	SBE determines the relative importance of each execution factor in light of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the characteristics of the Client including the categorisation of the Client as retail or professional; • the nature of the order; • the characteristics of the Financial Instruments that are subject of that order; and • the characteristics of the execution venues to which that order can be directed. In the ordinary course of business, price will have a relatively high importance. However, the overall value of a particular transaction may be affected by the other factors listed above. The diversity in markets and Financial Instruments and the kind of orders Clients may place with SBE means that different factors will have to be taken into account. For example, there is no formalised market or settlement infrastructure for over-the-counter transactions. In some markets, price volatility may mean that the timeliness of execution is a priority, whereas, in other markets that have low liquidity, the fact of execution may itself constitute best execution. In other cases, choice of venue may be limited (even to the extent that there may only be one platform/market upon which orders can be executed) because of the nature of an order or a Client's specific instructions. Please refer to appendix A of the Summary of Scotiabank London Best Execution Policy for asset class specific factors - http://www.gbm.scotiabank.com/AboutUs/AB_Global_Presence.htm
(b) a description of any close links, conflicts of interests, and common ownerships with respect to any execution venues used to execute orders;	SBE may use connected parties including affiliates for the execution of orders on behalf of Clients. Use of connected parties is permitted provided they are not placed in a privileged position vis-a-vis other execution venues and the selection is based on application of the execution factors as set out in the Scotiabank London Best Execution Policy. SBE is subject to the overarching requirement to identify and manage conflicts of interest. Where a conflict of interest cannot be managed it must be disclosed. This requirement applies to potential conflicts of interest that may arise between SBE and its Clients as a result of its execution arrangements which could prevent it from satisfying its Best Execution Obligations. SBE uses a number of affiliates (connected parties) to execute Client orders on its behalf and SBE business lines may execute Client orders against internal positions where this achieves the best possible result for the Client. SBE trades executed through internalisation or connected parties are subject to the same monitoring and testing arrangements as trades executed on external venues or through non-connected firms.
