

PRESS RELEASE

PHOTO NEWS FROM SCOTIABANK (BAHAMAS) LTD.

For immediate release
January 19, 2011

SCOTIABANK'S ROOFTOP JUNKANOO CELEBRATIONS

Scotiabank celebrated Junkanoo in grand style with two exclusive client events on the bank's rooftop in Rawson Square, prime viewing location to experience the magic of the parades. Hosted by Managing Director, Barry Malcolm, clients and special guests reveled with Scotiabank's management team during the recent Junkanoo festivities.

Two nights to certainly to be remembered, guests were wined and dined in grand style with catering provided by Van Breugel's and Bristol Wines and Spirits. Early morning breakfast favorites including stewed conch and boiled fish were provided by The Nassau Stadium and enjoyed by all.

Scotiabank is a major supporter of Junkanoo in The Bahamas, making annual donations to most major groups. Scotiabank is committed to supporting the communities in which we live and work. Recognized as a leader for its charitable donations and philanthropic activities, primarily in the areas of healthcare, education, social services and arts and culture,

###