

SCOTIABANK HOSTS SMALL BUSINESS WEEK 2012

Pictured (L-R) Kevin Teslyk, Managing Director; Panelists: Latoya Hanna-Moxey, Rionda Godet, Joan Albury, Glenette Reckley; Debra Wood, Scotiabank, Small Business Sales Leader; Dwight Burrows, Manager, Bahamas Refinance Unit.

Scotiabank (Bahamas) Ltd. designated last week as Small Business Week under the theme, “Celebrating Small Business”. During the week, Scotiabank hosted a series of events in New Providence and Grand Bahama aimed at assisting small business owners with managing and developing their businesses and to recognize the invaluable contributions of small business owners to the Bahamian economy.

Speaking at the Small Business Week’s official opening, Scotiabank’s Managing Director, Kevin Teslyk said, “We at Scotiabank are devoted to bolstering The Bahamas’ entrepreneurs, by offering pertinent business advice and services to help them establish and expand their small businesses. Scotiabank’s small business banking services include tools to help entrepreneurs develop their business plans and manage their cash flow. We provide the solutions to help business leaders realize their passion. At Scotiabank, we presume one’s potential is boundless, and we are therefore determined to help others discover what’s possible.”

Kevin Teslyk, attorney Keri Sherman, Debra Wood

SMALL BUSINESS WEEK 2012 IN REVIEW

Scotiabank Sponsors Rotaract Club’s Panel on Entrepreneurship: During its Small Business Week, Scotiabank also partnered with the Rotaract Club of East Nassau to host a panel discussion on Entrepreneurship in The Bahamas supporting the Club’s efforts to share success stories on what it takes to succeed in business. Pictured (L-R) are Nikolette Elden, Scotiabank’s Manager of Marketing Programs; Taran Taylor, Rotaract Club of East Nassau; Jaime Davis, Rotaract Club of East Nassau.

One of the week’s featured events was a panel discussion under the theme “Women in Business – Success Secrets”. This event featured a panel of successful Bahamian business women sharing their experiences and secrets to managing successful businesses. Panelists included CEO of The Counsellors, Joan Albury; Attorney and Entrepreneur, Rionda Godet; Marketeer and Designer, Latoya Hanna-Moxey, and Glenette Reckley, Scotiabank’s Senior Manager of Compliance and Legal Services.

Scotiabank’s Small Business Week culminated with a Client Appreciation Reception at Luciano’s of Chicago. Scotiabank representatives mixed and mingled with clients and members of the local professional associations.

Scotiabank’s Kevin Farrell and Darron Bowe show Customer Appreciation

Sunita Bonamy - Scotiabank, Wence Martin - Scotiabank, Attorney Samantha Rolle

Local Attorneys with Scotiabank’s Sunita Bonamy

Scotiabank Team - Maurice Rolle, Areminta Curry and Simeon Smith

Chris Wells, Graham Thompson and Co. with Scotiabank’s Alexandra Medina

Debra Wood, Scotiabank, Debbie Thompson, Scotiabank Attorney Pembroke Williams

Graham Thompson Team of Attorneys with Scotiabank Team

Attorneys Gianha Soles and Ashley

Johanna Mayson and James Owen

YOUR PASSIONS. OUR SOLUTIONS.

*Trademark of The Bank of Nova Scotia, used under licence.

Discover what’s possible