

Put business banking at your fingertips.

Scotiabank® online banking is the easy way to do your banking, allowing you more time for what you do best – running your business. Need to view your balance and transaction details? Move funds between accounts or send EFT or wire payments? Why not pay a bill online? No matter what the size of your company, Scotiabank allows you to access information and complete your important business banking in a single Internet-based solution.

With Scotiabank's Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) and wire functionality, you can manage your EFT and wire payments with convenience and security from your desktop. The EFT and wire payment services include many time saving features that enable you to quickly and accurately create your one-time and recurring payments. You'll save on cheque preparation, storage and handling costs and ensure your employee and supplier payments are conveniently deposited directly to their accounts.
