

Manage Multiple Payments with a View

Streamline your collections processing and the disbursement of recurring payments with Scotiabank's Integrated Payments service. Once your payment file has been transmitted to us, you can view, approve, submit and delete both EFT and southbound ACH batch payments online from the convenience of your desktop, through ScotiaConnect[™] electronic banking. Integrated Payments is ideal for complex and/or geographically dispersed organizations with multiple business units that require centralized control, initiate high volumes of multiple transaction types, and are seeking a single, convenient location for access and approvals.

With our Integrated Payments service, you have:

INFORMATION

- Integrated view of different payment types such as EFT and ACH
- View, approve, submit, and delete payments from a single screen
- Track information on invalid transactions from your payment file
- Initiate action based on groups, payment type, or by files and batches
- Transaction payment history can be accessed online
- Disable and/or delete payments prior to submission

ACCESS

- Multiple approval levels and tiers are flexible to accommodate different approval structures
- Service Groups can be used to organize and control access to the underlying payment services for various business lines
- Access to Service Groups can be assigned to user groups, similar to the entitlement structures used by other ScotiaConnect services

CONTROL

- Payments from multiple business units can be controlled through a single application
- Standard reports are provided that indicate what action was taken with each transaction
- History reports allow you to find and sort completed transactions using different search criteria
