Banco Del Caribe

YOUR PARTNER IN VENEZUELA

Banco del Caribe was founded in 1954, in Puerto Cabello, which at the time was Venezuela's principal gateway for international trade. While the head office is now in Caracas and its business mandate is much broader, Banco del Caribe still treasures its roots as a trade bank.

Banco del Caribe is the seventh largest bank in Venezuela with assets of US$3,003MM and 118 branches throughout the country.

In December 1997, The Bank of Nova Scotia acquired a 27% interest in Banco del Caribe and currently holds two seats on the Board of Directors.

Banco del Caribe offers a complete range of retail, commercial, corporate, treasury, and trade-related services:

TRADITIONAL TRADE FINANCE PRODUCTS

- Import letters of credit
- Export letters of credit
- Bid, performance and advance payment guarantees
- Standby letters of credit
- Clean and documentary collections
- Direct collection services for correspondents and exporters

PROJECT FINANCING/SYNDICATIONS

SUPPLIER TRADE SERVICES

- Advances against receivables
- Discounting acceptances and other trade paper with or without recourse
- Re-discounting
