

Addendum

Addendum For Ontario LRIFs

This Addendum sets out further provisions that apply to LRIFs which are subject to the Pension Benefits Act (the "Act") of the province of Ontario.

This Addendum forms a part of the main LRIF Agreement to which it is attached. In the case of any inconsistency between the main LRIF Agreement and this Addendum, this Addendum shall prevail in all cases.

1. Definitions

All of the definitions regarding locked-in retirement income funds set out in the Act and the Regulations to it are incorporated in this LRIF Agreement. In addition, in this Addendum, the term "Schedule" means Schedule 2 of the Regulations to the Act.

2. Sources of Funds

You may not transfer money into your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF after December 31, 2008.

3. Transfers

The paragraph heading of Section 9 of the main LRIF Agreement titled "From your Scotia Self-Directed LIF, LRIF, or Saskatchewan PRRIF to:" and the bullets thereunder are replaced with the following:

"From your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF to:

- an immediate life annuity that meets the requirements of paragraph 60(l) of the Tax Act and the Act and the Regulations to it;
- a LIF you own that is governed by Schedule 1.1 to the Regulations to the Act;
- before December 31 in the year in which you reach age 71, to a LIRA;
- before January 1, 2009, to another LRIF or to a LIF that is governed by Schedule 1 to the Regulations to the Act; or;
- another permissible registered retirement investment vehicle that meets the requirements of applicable tax legislation and the Act and the Regulations to it."

4. Calculating Payments

- (a) To calculate the maximum amount payable under your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF in a fiscal year, paragraphs 4, 7, 8 and 9 of Section 7 of the main LRIF Agreement do not apply. Instead, the maximum amount payable under your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF in a fiscal year is, subject to paragraphs (b), (c), (d) and (e), equal to the greater of the following amounts:
 - (i) The value of the assets in your LRIF at the beginning of that fiscal year less the amount calculated by subtracting from the sum of all amounts transferred into your LRIF since it was established the sum of all amounts transferred out of your LRIF since it was established.
 - (ii) The investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, of your LRIF in the previous fiscal year.
 - (iii) In the fiscal year in which your LRIF is established or in the following fiscal year, 6 per cent of the value of the assets in your LRIF at the beginning of the applicable fiscal year.
 - (iv) If the money in your LRIF is derived from money transferred directly from a LIF or another LRIF (the "transferring fund"), and if the income is being paid out of your LRIF in the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which it was established, the sum of,

- the investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, of the transferring fund in the previous fiscal year, and
- the investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains or losses, of your LRIF in the previous fiscal year.

- (b) If any money in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF is derived from money transferred directly or indirectly from a LIF or another LRIF, the maximum amount that may be paid out of your LRIF in the fiscal year in which the money is transferred into the LRIF is zero.
- (c) If the initial fiscal year of your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF is not 12 months long, the maximum amount determined under this Section 4 shall be adjusted in proportion to the number of months in that fiscal year divided by 12, with any part of an incomplete month counting as one month.
- (d) The amount of income paid out of your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF during a fiscal year must not be less than the minimum amount prescribed for an RRIF under the Tax Act. If such minimum amount is greater than the maximum amount determined under this Section 4, the minimum amount must be paid out of your LRIF during the fiscal year.
- (e) If you elect to be paid an amount that is less than the maximum amount determined under this Section 4 in a fiscal year, the difference between the maximum amount and the amount paid in the year may be carried forward. You may elect to be paid in a fiscal year all or part of the amount carried forward from a prior fiscal year and, in that case, the amount carried forward is reduced by the amount paid to you.

5. Joint Life Annuity

When the funds in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF are used to buy an immediate life annuity, this must be a joint life annuity for you and your spouse as required by the Act and the Regulations to it, provided you have a spouse at the time and he or she has not waived his or her rights in the form and manner required by the Act and the Regulations to it.

6. Withdrawals

A. YMPE-based Lump Sum Payment

- (a) Upon application in accordance with the applicable Schedule provision, you may withdraw all the money in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF or transfer the assets to an RRSP or RRIF if, when you sign the application,
 - (i) you are at least 55 years of age; and
 - (ii) the value of all assets in all life income funds, locked-in retirement income funds and locked-in retirement accounts owned by you is less than 40 per cent of the Year's Maximum Pensionable Earnings for that calendar year. The value of all assets in all life income funds, locked-in retirement income funds and locked-in retirement accounts owned by you when you sign the application is to be determined using the most recent statement about each fund or account given to you. Each such statement must be dated within one year before you sign the application.

Addendum (continued)

- (b) An application for the withdrawal or transfer described in this paragraph A must be given to us on a form approved by the Superintendent. The application form must be signed by you and accompanied by one of the following documents:
 - (i) A declaration about a spouse, as described in the Schedule.
 - (ii) A statement signed by you attesting to the fact that none of the money in your LRIF is derived, directly or indirectly, from a pension benefit provided in respect of your employment.

B. Non-resident Withdrawal

- (a) Upon application in accordance with the applicable Schedule provision, you may withdraw all the money in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF,
 - (i) if, when you sign the application, you are a non-resident of Canada as determined by the Canada Revenue Agency for the purposes of the Tax Act; and
 - (ii) if the application is made at least 24 months after your date of departure from Canada.
- (b) An application for the withdrawal described in this paragraph B must be given to us on a form approved by the Superintendent. The application form must be signed by you and accompanied by the following documents:
 - (i) A written determination from the Canada Revenue Agency that you are a non-resident for the purposes of the Tax Act.
 - (ii) Either a declaration about a spouse, as described in the Schedule, or a statement signed by you attesting to the fact that none of the money in your LRIF is derived, directly or indirectly, from a pension benefit provided in respect of your employment.

C. Shortened Life Expectancy

- (a) Upon application in accordance with the applicable Schedule provision, you may withdraw all or part of the money in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF if, when you sign the application, you have an illness or physical disability that is likely to shorten your life expectancy to less than two years.
- (b) An application for the withdrawal described in this paragraph C must be given to us on a form approved by the Superintendent. The application form must be signed by you and accompanied by the following documents:
 - (i) A statement signed by a physician who is licensed to practise medicine in a jurisdiction in Canada that, in the opinion of the physician, you have an illness or physical disability that is likely to shorten your life expectancy to less than two years.
 - (ii) Either a declaration about a spouse, as described in the Schedule, or a statement signed by you attesting to the fact that none of the money in your LRIF is derived, directly or indirectly, from a pension benefit provided in respect of your employment.

D. Financial Hardship.

You may apply to the Superintendent in the form and manner required by the Act and the Regulations to it to withdraw all or part of the money from your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF if you suffer from a circumstance of financial hardship that is prescribed in the Regulations to the Act. If the Superintendent consents to your application, we will make payment to you in accordance with the terms of the Superintendent's consent within 30 days after receiving the consent, provided that the consent is received by us no more than 12 months after the date it was signed by the Superintendent. The Superintendent's consent is a nullity if it is received by us more than 12 months after the date it was signed by the Superintendent.

E. Withdrawal Documentation – General Matters

- (a) We are entitled to rely upon the information provided by you in an application described in Section 6A, B or C if the application is made in accordance with the applicable provision in the Schedule. An application that meets the requirements of the applicable Schedule provision constitutes authorization to us to make the payment or, where applicable, transfer from your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF in accordance with that provision.
- (b) If you are required to give a document to us for the purposes of a withdrawal described in Section 6A, B or C or a transfer described in Section 6A, and if the document is one that must be signed by you or by your spouse, the document is a nullity if it is signed by you or your spouse more than 60 days before we receive it.
- (c) When we receive a document required under the Schedule for the purposes of a withdrawal described in Section 6A, B or C or a transfer described in Section 6A, we will give you a receipt for the document stating the date on which it was received.
- (d) If you are entitled to a withdrawal payment described in Section 6A, B or C or a transfer described in Section 6A, we are required to make the payment or transfer within 30 days after we receive the completed application form and accompanying document(s) required under the applicable Schedule provision.

7. Estate Matters

- (a) Upon your death, your spouse or, if you do not have a spouse or if your spouse is otherwise disentitled, your named beneficiary or, if there is no beneficiary named, your estate is entitled to receive a benefit equal to the value of the assets in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF. This benefit may be transferred to an RRSP or an RRIF in accordance with the Tax Act.
- (b) Your spouse is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF unless you were a member or former member of a pension plan from which assets were transferred directly or indirectly to purchase your LRIF. In addition, a spouse who is living separate and apart from you on the date of your death is not entitled to receive the value of the assets in your LRIF.
- (c) For the purposes of paragraph (a),
 - (i) the determination as to whether you have a spouse is made on the date of your death.
 - (ii) the value of the assets in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF includes all accumulated investment earnings, including any unrealized capital gains and losses, of the LRIF from the date of death until the date of payment.

- (d) Your spouse may waive his or her entitlement to receive the survivor's benefit described in this section 7 by delivering to us a written waiver in a form approved by the Superintendent. Your spouse may cancel such a waiver by delivering a written and signed notice of cancellation to us before the date of your death.

8. Amendments

- (a) We must give you at least 90 days notice of a proposed amendment, other than an amendment described in paragraph (b).
- (b) We must not amend the contract governing your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF if the amendment would result in a reduction of your rights under the contract unless,
 - (i) we are required by law to make the amendment; and
 - (ii) you are entitled to transfer the assets in your LRIF under the terms of the contract that exist before the amendment is made.
- (c) When making an amendment described in paragraph (b), we will notify you of the nature of the amendment and allow you at least 90 days after the notice is given to transfer all or part of the assets in your Scotia Self-Directed LRIF.
- (d) Any notice described under this Section 8 will be sent by registered mail to your last recorded address as set out in our files.
