

Scotiabank Jamaica donates $230,000 risograph to Denham Town Primary School

September 5, 2005 - This morning, the beginning of the new school year, Scotiabank Jamaica donated to the Denham Town Primary School, a risograph costing $230,000.

Mrs. Marie Powell, Vice President of Corporate Affairs and Marketing, in handing over the risograph said ,
“We hope that this risograph will assist not only in the dissemination of information but also lead to the development of new work, especially for the use of students who need special learning materials.”

Scotiabank Jamaica has had a history of supporting the Denham Town Primary School, including the donation of two five-year Scotiabank Foundation Scholarships in 2000 and 2002. These scholarships are valued at $125,000 each and are part of the annual Grade Six Achievement Test scholarships.

For further information contact: Marie Powell, Vice President Corporate Affairs & Marketing
Telephone 932-0542
