

Scotiabank honours PM, Sir Howard and Lady Cooke

On Thursday, March 2, 2006, The Bank of Nova Scotia Jamaica Limited hosted a dinner at the Grand Jamaica Suite of the Jamaica Pegasus Hotel to honour the retiring Prime Minister, The Honourable P. J. Patterson and Sir Howard and Lady Cooke, in the presence of the new Governor General, The Most Honourable Kenneth Hall and the Most Honourable Mrs. Hall.

Presentations of artwork were made to the outgoing Prime Minister and Governor General as tokens of appreciation for their years of stewardship to the country.

Nigerian artist, Omoruyi Otor created the bamboo art pieces for the occasion.

For further information please contact Marie Powell, Vice President, Corporate Affairs & Marketing at 876-932-0543.

Former Governor General, Sir Howard Cooke, views the bamboo art rendering of King's House, official residence of the Governor General, presented to him by Mrs. Gwen Clarke, wife of Scotiabank Jamaica President and CEO, William E. Clarke.

President and CEO of Scotiabank Jamaica, William E. Clarke, presents an intricate bamboo art rendering of the official residence of the Prime Minister, Vale Royal, to Prime Minister, P. J. Patterson.