MARKET COMMENTARY

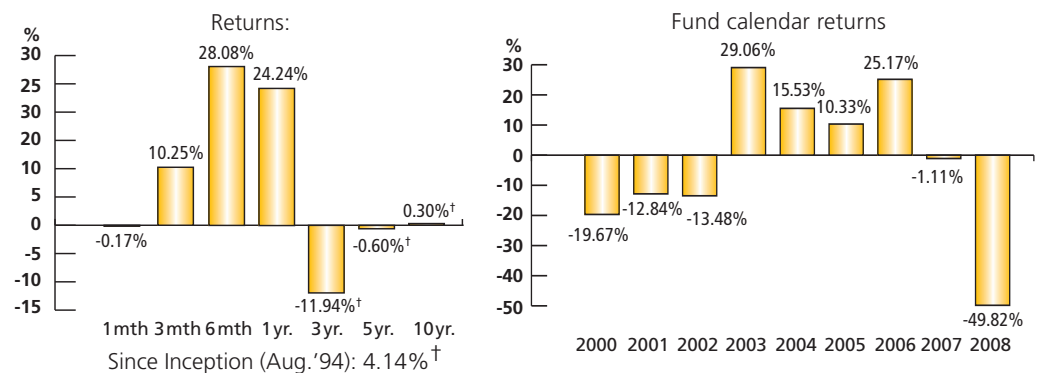

During the quarter, the Scotiabank Global Growth Fund outperformed its benchmark due to positive security selection. The Fund returned 17.74% as strong stock picking in the finance and consumer cyclicals sectors added to returns.

Equity markets rallied further in the third quarter as investors gained confidence that a sustainable economic recovery is under way. The second consecutive quarter of gains started off with positive news, as better-than-expected Japanese confidence and Chinese and US manufacturing data lifted the market. In August, encouraging macro and earnings data drove the market's strong performance, along with ALG's announcement that it planned to repay government bailout funds.

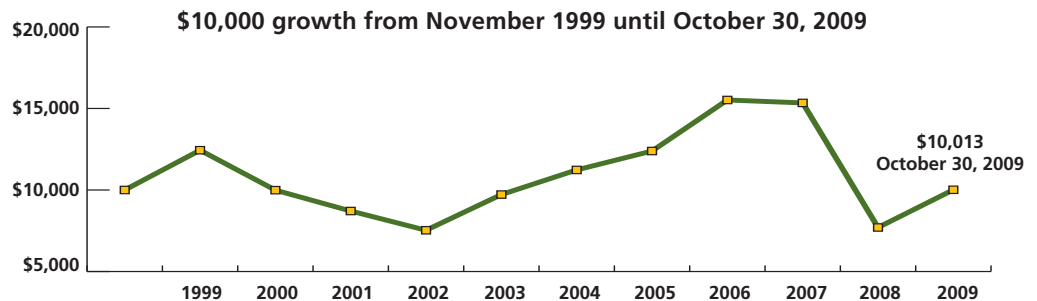

Several finance holdings ranked among the top contributors to performance. Contributors included media stocks CBS and News Corp, which benefited from enthusiasm about a recovery in advertising spending. Bombardier also contributed after the transportation equipment manufacturer beat second-quarter earnings expectations. On the negative side Ericsson, Corning and Safeway detracted from returns.

FUND PERFORMANCE

The Fund returned -0.17% for the month, compared to MSCI World Index, which returned -1.85%.
