

PRESS RELEASE

SCOTIABANK HELPS STUDENTS ACHIEVE THEIR GOALS

With the FIFA World Cup 2006 in full swing and the nation steadfastly backing the Trinidad and Tobago team, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited has taken the opportunity to share with the entire student population of the Ciperó R.C. School in La Romain, a taste of football fever while simultaneously lending a helping hand.

The students were pleasantly surprised when Mr. Azamuddin Khan, Branch Manager, Couva recently paid them a visit. The eager students were presented with a range of school supplies which included MasterCard FIFA World Cup knapsacks and footballs, Magna Mugs and Scotiabank copybooks.

In expressing his gratitude for Scotiabank's gesture, Mr. David Sylvester, Acting Principal I at the Ciperó R.C. School stated, "We certainly appreciate your efforts to enhance the lives of our children and admire your ready and ever willing attitude to share and be a part of the spirit of nationalism, which the Soca Warriors are fostering."

The exuberant children and teachers show off their gifts.

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited was pleased to have assisted the Ciperó R.C. School and has pledged its continued support for social development in Trinidad and Tobago.
