

PRESS RELEASE

SCOTIABANK WOMEN AGAINST BREAST CANCER - 8th ANNUAL 5K CLASSIC

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited announces that its 8th annual Women Against Breast Cancer 5k Classic, with the theme “Heel to Heal”, will take place at 4 pm on Saturday 9th September 2006 at the King George V Park in Trinidad and the Scotiabank Car Park in Tobago. As is customary, it will be preceded by an aerobic warm-up conducted by the Trinidad and Tobago Road Runners Club.

The Women Against Breast Cancer 5k Classic is expected to attract over 5,000 participants and is the largest all-female race in the Caribbean. This year, for every participant that crosses the finish line, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited will contribute $10.00 towards its Women Against Breast Cancer Fund. This fund is then utilized to cover the cost of free mammogram and ultrasound testing at selected health centers throughout Trinidad and Tobago in the month of October, which is designated Cancer month.

Gold sponsors for the event are Lucozade, Yoplait and Blue Waters and co-sponsors include Nature Valley, Perfit, Bermudez Wheat Crisps, Holiday Foods, Wrigley’s, Visine, Bengay, Cher Mere, KC Confectionery, National Canners Limited, BWIA, Jamieson, KFC, TGIF, TCBY, Pizza Hut, Cadbury and National Flour Mills.

Registration for the annual Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer 5k Classic begins on August 2nd at selected Scotiabank branches located in Arima, Diego Martin, Port-of-Spain, San Fernando, Chaguanas, Couva, Maraval, Sangre Grande, Scotia Centre, Marabella, San Juan, Tunapuna and Tobago.
