SCOTIABANK CUSTOMER GOES HOME WITH $100,000 CASH PRIZE

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited recently awarded a cash prize of $100,000 to the lucky winner of the Scotiabank D2D Deposit Promotion. Mr. Robert Bernard, a customer of the bank, took advantage of the benefits of Scotiabank's automatic payroll deposit account, which provides employers with the ability to automatically deposit the salaries of Scotiabank customers directly into their accounts.

"Scotiabank's cash prize promotion was designed to help people discover the terrific benefits of Scotiabank automatic deposits," said Scotiabank Managing Director, Richard Young.

With the D2D Deposit Promotion which rolled out in March 2006, Scotiabank customers' first automatic payroll deposit, or first automatic savings deposit, earned them a chance to win cash. Other chances were available for Internet banking transactions. Customers were also able to double their chances to win by taking advantage of all three types of transactions.

Grand Prize Winner Mr. Robert Bernard (Left) receives his prize from Mr. Savon Persad, Assistant General Manager and Centre Manager, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited
