

PRESS RELEASE

SCOTIABANK – HELPING WOMEN MANAGE DIFFICULT CONVERSATIONS

The Scotiabank Women’s Network, Trinidad and Tobago was established in 2004 to promote the development and advancement of women in the workplace. Over the past two (2) years the Scotiabank Women’s Network has hosted two (2) seminars, with tremendous success. Based on the positive feedback received from participants at those events, the Network has embarked on the facilitation of a workshop for female executives and senior managers, entitled “Managing Difficult Conversations – How to discuss what matters most”. The Workshop facilitator will be the dynamic Annette Rahael, Family Business Consultant and the Workshop will examine the structure of difficult conversations in both professional and personal settings.

The Workshop will be held on Friday September 21, 2007 from 7:00 a.m. to 12.00 noon at The Ballroom, Cascadia Hotel and Conference Centre, Ariapita Road, St. Anns. The cost of registration is $300.00, which includes breakfast.

For further information on registration, please contact any of the following persons:

- Misty Dorman-Hosein           625-3566 ext. 2377
- Belinda James                 625-3566 ext. 2205
- Nicole De Freitas             625-3566 ext. 4103
- Angelique Patience         625-3566 ext. 2316

September 11th 2007