

PRESS RELEASE

FEMALE GOLFERS TO TEE OFF AT THE SCOTIABANK WOMEN AGAINST BREAST CANCER GOLF TOURNAMENT

Seventeen teams have registered to play at Scotiabank's Annual Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer Ladies' Golf Tournament to take place on Tuesday 28th April 2009 at the St. Andrew's Golf Club in Moka, Maraval. The event is the only all-female golf tournament in Trinidad and Tobago and will raise funds for the Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer Account, with the ladies teeing off at 10:00 a.m.

Sponsors include Advil, Alescon Readymix Limited, BG Trinidad and Tobago, bp Trinidad and Tobago, BMW, Forward Industries Limited, Janouras Custom Design Limited, KPMG, National Lotteries Control Board, Neal and Massy Foundation, Olay, Phoenix Park Gas Processors Limited, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited, Scrip-J, Valdez and Torry International, Yoplait and Zoom Caribbean.

According to Reena Panchorie, Assistant Manager, Public and Corporate Affairs at Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited and Project Manager for the Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer Programme, "Our annual ladies' golf tournament is just one of many fundraisers organized by Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited which assist in underwriting the cost of breast cancer screening clinics, ultrasounds and mammograms for women at selected health and medical institutions throughout Trinidad and Tobago. The consistent support of our valued sponsors for our ladies' golf tournament makes this venture successful year after year, with this being our 10th golf tournament since inception of the Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer Programme."

Scotiabank is committed to supporting communities throughout Trinidad and Tobago. Recognized as a leader internationally and among Canadian corporations for its charitable donations and philanthropic activities, in 2008 the Bank provided about $43 million in sponsorships and donations to a variety of projects and initiatives, primarily in the areas of healthcare, education, social services and arts and culture. The Scotiabank Women Against Breast Cancer Ladies' Golf Tournament is funded by the Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Foundation, a subsidiary of the Bank which oversees the philanthropic work of the organization.
