

PRESS RELEASE

SCOTIABANK $$ FOR SOCA WARRIORS

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited recently contributed TT$91,014 to the Trinidad and Tobago National Football Team to assist in defraying the cost of participating in the 2006 World Cup to be held in Germany. The cheque donation was handed over to Mr. Jack Warner, special advisor to the Trinidad and Tobago Football Federation, who accepted on behalf of the team.

The donation was made possible through a Scotiabank promotion run during November 8th – 17th 2005, in which TT$1 was donated to the Trinidad and Tobago National Football Team for every Scotiabank ATM transaction conducted with the use of the Scotiacard.

According to Mr. Richard P. Young, Managing Director of Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited, “the fact that the Soca Warriors have qualified for the World Cup 2006 fills us with a tremendous sense of pride here at Scotiabank and as a responsible corporate citizen, we recognized that it was imperative to come to their assistance and demonstrate our support in a tangible manner, as they embark on their historical debut in Germany.”

Scotiabank is known for actively supporting the sporting community in Trinidad and Tobago through its involvement in West Indian Cricket and its annual Schools’ Table Tennis Tournament.
