The 28th Annual Scotiabank Tributes Ceremony

Scotiabank recently held its 28th Annual Tributes Ceremony, to recognise employees of Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited in the areas of long service and academic achievement.

According to Richard P. Young, Managing Director, "The fact that these employees have stayed with Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited for such a long time serves as a testament to the organisation's ability to provide an interesting work environment, fully appreciate the efforts of staff and provide a sense of belonging."

The Management of Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited extends its heartfelt appreciation and congratulations to the staff members honoured at the ceremony.
