

PRESS RELEASE

SCOTIABANK'S LADIES' GOLF TOURNAMENT SCORES BIG FOR THE FIGHT AGAINST BREAST CANCER

Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited recently teed off its Annual Women Against Breast Cancer Ladies' Golf Tournament at the St. Andrew's Golf Club in Moka, Maraval. Now in its 7th year, this charity golf tournament and has shown a progressive increase in participation since its inception in 2000.

This year, a record twenty-six teams competed in the tournament, sponsored by organizations representing various sectors throughout Trinidad and Tobago, including oil and gas, tourism and hospitality, financial services, manufacturing and advertising.

The winning team of Lisa and Jackie Niles receive their prizes from Earl Gill, Senior General Manager, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited.

In winners' row, copping the first prize were the mother and daughter team of Jackie and Lisa Niles sponsored by the National Lotteries Control Board, while second place went to Renee Ayoung and Elena deGannes, sponsored by Bynoe, Rowe, Wiltshire Partnership. Capturing third place was the PricewaterhouseCoopers team of Maria Nunes and Gillian Quesnel.

The Women Against Breast Cancer Golf Tournament is the first of a number of public initiatives to be held this year by Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited as it continues its drive to raise awareness of the importance of screenings, mammograms and ultrasounds as precautionary measures in the fight against breast cancer. Scotiabank began its Women Against Breast Cancer programme in 1999 and to date over TT$650,000 has been raised and more than 6,000 women from various regions throughout Trinidad and Tobago have benefited from this initiative.

For further information, please contact Gilbert Sankar, Assistant General Manager, Sales & Marketing at 625-3566 Ext 2214

May 10th 2006.