MOMS RECOGNIZED BY SCOTIABANK

With Mother's Day on the horizon, Scotiabank Trinidad and Tobago Limited utilized its branch network to recognize outstanding mothers in the communities in which the Bank operates. Twenty-three mothers were presented with hampers as tokens of appreciation for the invaluable contribution that they make to the social and economic development of our nation.

In South Trinidad, Mrs. Elvira Khan was honoured by Scotiabank's Marabella branch. Mrs. Khan taught at the Harmony Hall Presbyterian School for more than twenty years before retiring as Principal in 1996. She has been married for forty-four years, raising two sons of her own and dozens more who have lived and continue to live at the El Shaddai Restoration Home for Children in Gasparillo, of which she is President of the Board. Mrs. Khan is also a founding member of the Islamic Home for Children and served on that Board for ten years.

According to Sundarsen Vishnu, Branch Manager at Scotiabank Marabella, "Mrs. Khan is an asset to the community she serves, pounding the pavement to ensure that all her children's needs are met. We salute her and pledge our commitment to continue supporting her and all those who reside at the El Shaddai Restoration Home for Children."
