4. Amendments to the Base Prospectus following proposals to amend the “hybrid mismatch rules” contained in the Income Tax Act (Canada)

In light of the proposal to amend the “hybrid mismatch rules” contained in the Income Tax Act (Canada) which were announced by the Department of Finance (Canada) on 29 January 2026, the following disclosure is amended in the Base Prospectus as follows:

(a) Under the section “GENERAL CONDITIONS” on pages 162 to 304, the following shall be added at the end of sub-section 14.3(b) under Condition 14 entitled “Taxation” on page 269:

“(iii) or otherwise subject to withholding tax as a result of the enactment of the proposed amendments to the Income Tax Act (Canada) released by the Department of Finance (Canada) on 29 January 2026 (or successor provisions thereto); or”

(b) Under the section “CERTAIN TAX LEGISLATION AFFECTING THE SECURITIES” on pages 614 to 629, the following should be inserted as a new fourth paragraph under the section entitled “Canada” commencing on page 614:

“On January 29, 2026, the Department of Finance Canada released for consultation proposed amendments (the “January 29th Proposed Amendments”) that would amend paragraph 18.4(3)(b) of the Act, and introduce other consequential amendments. This summary further assumes that the January 29th Proposed Amendments will not apply to amounts payable to a Non-resident Holder in respect of the securities. However, there can be no assurance in this regard. Investors should note that the January 29th Proposed Amendments are highly complex, and there remains significant uncertainty as to their interpretation and application.”
